

To Whom it May Concern:

I am so impressed with LeapLaw that I feel compelled to share my thoughts and feedback with others.

I have been a paralegal (corporate, intellectual property) for seventeen years and have seen the gamut of technology and products over the years. LeapLaw is a gem. It has everything I need to get my work accomplished quickly and accurately.

I use LeapLaw at least twice a week for a large variety of common tasks. My favorite section is Corporate Connection. It is so intuitive that I rarely spend more than a few minutes looking something up. Tasks that used to take up so much of my time either waiting on the telephone or on-line are now carried to completion in a matter of minutes. There is so much information there (due diligence, general research, forms, estate information, trade name information, to name a few) that I haven't begun to realize how valuable a tool it really is. I can do corporate name searches, get incorporation forms and get a corporate filing done in less than half the time it would have normally taken in the past. Furthermore, the initial investment my company made in a year's subscription to LeapLaw was made back in a handful of transactions.

LeapLaw also keeps me current in new developments in the legal industry. The site is constantly being updated and notifying the user of recent changes in laws. I appreciate that because I don't always have a lot of free time to attend continuing education courses. I feel the information I gather from LeapLaw is going to be up-to-date. I'm very happy with not only the reliability of legal information on LeapLaw but the "Best Practice" guides which show HOW to do something. If I am a little rusty in a particular area LeapLaw is a great reminder tool and if I have never taken on a certain topic or procedure it is a valuable training tool to get me started. An added bonus to LeapLaw itself is a great User Manual which comes with the subscription and the availability of the founders and researchers to respond to questions or suggestions I have had. They have responded almost immediately when I have reached out for help.

In summary, our subscription to LeapLaw has proved to be an incredibly positive experience. We are saving money that would normally be charged out to outside legal service providers and related service companies because we can now perform many tasks ourselves with the help of LeapLaw. I haven't seen anything else out there in the marketplace which is comparable and which pulls all of this together in one tool like LeapLaw.
